

Moore Youth Center

12 Gilmore Street, Cambridge

617-349-6273

JOIN!

Teen Program

JOIN!

Monday-Friday 2:00 pm - 9:30 pm

Come join us for field trips, fitness, events and more...

Contact Rachel Deleveaux or Kwame Dance at 617-349-6273

Upcoming Events:

"Act like a Lady; Think like a Man"

Beginning Wednesday, October 10th | 4:pm

In The Moore Youth Center's version of a hypothetical 'meeting in the ladies' room', girls will have an opportunity to discuss and ask questions on issues relevant to them. Staff will provide subjects for open forums, as well as interactive workshops that peak the interests of emerging young women.

"I'm sure that if woman laid out the rules- requirements- early on, and let her intended know that he could either rise up to those requirements, or just move on. A directive like that signals to a man that you are not a plaything-someone to be used and discarded. It tells him that what you have- your benefits- are special, and that you need time to get to know him and his ways to decide if he DESERVES them." –Steve Harvey

"HUSTLE AND FLOW" THE EVOLUTION OF HIPHOP

Every Friday, beginning October 5th | 4:00pm

Teens will learn about the birth and evolution of hip hop from its humble beginnings to a multi-billion dollar industry through interactive workshops and lesson plans, designed and facilitated by a national recording artist. Workshops will feature special guest presenters from the hip hop industry. Teens will also have the opportunity to develop their crafts as hip hop artists, and/or entrepreneurs by learning about the art form, and real world business practices that are applicable to all industries.

"I'm not a businessman. I'm a business...maaaann!" - Jay-Z - Diamonds are Forever (Remix)

FIRST FRIDAY NIGHT LIVE

Open Mic series

Every first Friday beginning Friday, October 12th | 7pm (soft opening)

Teens will be exposed to and participate in an evening of live music, spoken word poetry, and vocal performances accompanied by both visual and performing arts: including interpretive dance, live visual artwork, and dramatic expression. Every first Friday, the usually highly energized Moore Youth Center Game room will transform to an intimate atmosphere, with smooth rim shot soul-easy listening, and an artistic canvas full of the creative decor of Cambridge Teens and special guests.

"I'm glad I understand that while language is a gift, listening is a responsibility." - Nikki Giovanni